

ANNOUNCEMENT OF ISSUANCE OF A GENERAL PERMIT FOR AQUATIC NOXIOUS WEED CONTROL

Introduction: On May 15, 2002, Ecology issued a new National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) general permit for application of herbicides to control aquatic noxious weeds in surface waters of Washington State. This permit will take effect on June 14, 2002. The proposed permit implements the Federal Clean Water Act. The purpose of the permit is to control the discharge of herbicides that become waste after treatments to eradicate nonnative, invasive weeds in waters of the state.

Summary of Public Involvement Process: Notice of the proposed permit was published in the state register and posted on the Internet. Notice included an invitation to provide public comment on the proposed permit. Revisions were made to the permit as a result of the comments received during the formal public comment period. A summary of Ecology's response to the comments is available on the Internet or upon request at the address below.

Permit Coverage: Those governmental agencies that wish to seek coverage under the new general permit should submit an application for coverage. Individuals or organizations that wish to conduct noxious weed control with herbicides in state waters should contact the Washington State Department of Agriculture and request inclusion under the permit coverage that will be held by WSDA.

Anyone with knowledge as to why a specific governmental agency should or should not receive coverage under this general permit may also contact Ecology's headquarters office at the address below.

Appeal Procedures: Pursuant to RCW 43.21.B.310 the terms and conditions of the permit may be appealed on or before June 14, 2002. An appeal must be filed with the Pollution Control Hearings Board, P.O. Box 40903, Olympia, Washington, 98504-0903. In addition, a copy of this appeal must be served on the Department of Ecology, P.O. Box 47600, Olympia, Washington, 98504-7600. The procedures and requirements for the appeal process are contained in RCW 43.21.B.310.

The terms and conditions of a general permit, as they apply to an individual discharger, are appealable within 30 days of the effective date of coverage of that discharger, in accordance with chapter 43.21B RCW. This appeal is limited to the general permit's applicability or nonapplicability to a specific discharger.
